Thank You

Fr Jim Doherty and myself would like to say a very big thank you to everyone who sent us greetings and gifts for Christmas and for using the special envelopes for the clergy offering. Your kindness and generosity is very much appreciated.

I want to say a special word of thanks to everyone who has helped the Christmas Masses go so well. A lot of work goes on behind the scenes. Many thanks to everyone who was involved.

This last week of the year gives me the opportunity to say a Very Big Thank You to all the people who help with the smooth running of the Parish and who give of their time and talent so generously in so many ways. Please forgive me if I miss anyone out. It is not deliberate. So, in no particular order, I want to say many thanks to flower arrangers, crib erectors (both inside the church and outside, including the men who moved the crib from the garage), sacristans, mulled wine makers (after Midnight Mass), cleaners, newsletter producers, church linen cleaners, rota producers, readers, choir, folk group, organists, instrumentalists, cantors, altar servers (young and old), our altar server co-ordinator, ushers, welcomers and the leaders and helpers of the Children's Liturgy who arranged the splendid nativity play at the Christmas Vigil Mass, the staff, children and governors of St Robert's School, St Benedicts School for their wonderful Carol Service. A big thank you to the Eucharistic Ministers, the counters, the parish secretary, the people who help with the offertory collection, the gift aid organiser, the parish pastoral council, finance committee, the fundraising committee (and all who have supported the events so magnificently), the ushers, welcomers, CWL, SVP, Catenians, bingo and all other parish groups, all those who serve refreshments after Mass on a Sunday morning. To everyone who works quietly behind the scenes, a very big thank you. Your help and commitment is very much appreciated. Thank you to each and every one of you for your commitment to the parish and your participation in the life of the parish.

Thanks to everyone who supports the parish and school in so many varied ways. It is very much appreciated. Thanks also for your financial contribution to the Parish through the offertory collection and gift aid.

I want to say a special word of thanks to Fr Jim Doherty whose contribution to the life of the parish is enormous. We all owe him a deep debt of gratitude. I value his help and support very much.
